ServSafe/Level 2 Training Course Registration

ServSafe is a national comprehensive training course that teaches basic and advanced concepts in food safety, protection and management.

While this training is open and available to all interested food service employees, at least one manager/supervisor in all risk level 3 and 4 Food Service Operation's (FSO's) and Retail Food Establishments (RFE's) are required to be Level 2 certified in Ohio.

Attendance is required on both days of class for a total of 16 in-person contact hours.

The Erie County Health Department is an approved Level 2 Food Protection training provider. Successful completion and a passing score of 75% or greater will result in a certification issued by the Ohio Department of Health.

Lunch will be on your own during an approximate 1 hour lunch break each day, please plan accordingly.
